CAMP RULES – please read all pages before signing

I understand that part of the camping experience involves activities and group living arrangements and interaction that may be new to my child, and that they come with certain risks and uncertainties beyond what my child may be used to dealing with at home. I am aware of these risks, and I am assuming them on behalf of my child. I realize that no environment is risk free, and so I have instructed my child on the importance of abiding by the camps rules, and my child and I both agree that he or she is familiar with these rules and will obey them. I understand that all campers are to abide by the camp rules and obey the Camp Dean, Manager, Nurse, and Staff. Should my child be sent home for discipline problems, I will provide transportation from the camp premises. I further give permission and consent to Tanglewood Christian Camp for any photographs, videotapes, and interviews to be taken during the camping session to be published and used to illustrate, report, promote and advertise the camp including on Internet We Sites promoting or reporting on the camp. I hereby assign full copyright of these or in part, in any way and in any medium. Provided my name is not mentioned in connection with any other statement or wording which may be attributed to me personally. I undertake not to prosecute or to institute proceedings, claims or demands against Tanglewood Christian Camp or any of their employees related and explained such to my child or ward who is attending the camp. I and my child or ward, agree to abide by and obey the camp rules. For and in consideration of my child or ward being allowed to attend the camp, I, for myself, my child, and our heirs and assigns, agree to indemnify, hold harmless, and defend, and release Tanglewood Christian Camp, its directors, officers, employees, agents, counselors, sponsors, and their respective heirs, successors and assigns from all damages (including personal injury or death of myself or my child or ward, and property damage) of any kind resulting from the action and omissions of said persons or entities.
